

In 2015-16 Healthwatch Cambridgeshire:

Served 650,000+ local people
in Cambridgeshire.

Listened to hundreds of people's opinions and experiences
of health and care.

find information about
health and care services.

Shared nearly 100
opportunities to get involved in service changes

Wrote reports and made suggestions for improvement on three important local issues.

- My Own Mind report into children and young people's mental health.
- Our Health Matters, a project to help improve care for Gypsies, Romany and Travellers.
- First Steps to Health report into local GP, pharmacy and NHS 111 services.

through our Consultation Network.

Visited 13 local care homes
to find out how people experience care, and help improve services.

Won a national Healthwatch award

for working with the Care
Quality Commission.

Challenged decision makers
when care wasn't working

e.g. collapse of the older people's health care
and adult community services contract.

Were supported by 23 volunteers

who helped us listen to stories, visit services and even run workshops.

Get involved with your local Healthwatch

We are your local health and care champion. We make sure you are listened to when important decisions are made about our health and care services.

Tell Healthwatch how care is working for you

We need to know where care is working well and where it needs to be better. We log what you tell us, and share it anonymously with the organisations who make decisions about our care. This helps them improve services where it is needed.

You can tell us about your own experiences, or those of someone important to you.

Call us, tell us online, or chat to us when we are at a local event.
